

Friends of Haystack Rock At The Cannon Beach Tuesday Farmers' Market

The management of the Cannon Beach Farmer's Market has invited local non-profit groups to host a table at the Market which is held on Tuesdays from 2-6:00 p.m. for the remainder of the Summer season.

Friends of Haystack Rock is scheduled for July 1 and August 12, 2008, and will have information and brochures related to the Haystack Rock Awareness Program, puffin caps for sale, and be ready to answer questions for any potential volunteers and interested visitors and local residents.

We hope that you will stop by and chat with us when you visit the Market.
